From Classic to Jurassic, a world leader in delivering the extraordinary!
From ancient and modern Greece to the fossil-rich hills of Wyoming, The Children’s Museum of Indianapolis has been on a mission—as the world’s biggest and best children’s museum, we’ve been partnering to bring extraordinary experiences from across the globe to Indiana!

FROM CLASSIC

Treasures of Ancient Greece immersed visitors in the arts and artifacts of centuries-old Greece, while Take Me There: Greece showcased the vibrant culture of contemporary Greece.
The museum and leading scientists unearthed 638 specimens from The Jurassic Mile, including fossilized bones of giant sauropods that will be unveiled in a new Mission Jurassic Experience.
The Making of An Extraordinary Year All-Time Attendance Record of 1.3 Million!

Every museum has a mission. But to be “on a mission” conveys The Children’s Museum’s sense of urgency and commitment to its cause: to create family learning experiences that have the power to transform the lives of children and families—in short, to create the extraordinary!
In 2019, we were on a mission to achieve the extraordinary, and we succeeded. We created new and innovative experiences across the arts, sciences, and humanities, from captivating families with ancient and modern Greek culture and immersive, multigenerational sci-fi experiences to initiating an unprecedented international collaboration to unearth Jurassic treasures.

All-Time Highest Attendance
The museum's mission-driven pursuit of creating extraordinary family learning experiences resulted in all-time record attendance in 2019, with 1,318,930 visits recorded. A key factor in the increase was the fact that families discovered the great value in membership, with a record 36,111 member and donor-member households.

Innovative Exhibits
The museum’s family-friendly immersive experiences transported thousands of visitors to worlds past and present, significantly contributing to the all-time attendance record. Treasures of Ancient Greece and Take Me There: Greece were two of the year’s highlights, the results of a partnership with the Hellenic Ministry of Culture and Sports. Treasures of Ancient Greece featured more than 150 objects from Greek national museums, including sculptures, jewelry, armor, vases, and scientific inventions such as a replica of the Antikythera Mechanism, thought to be the world’s first analog computer. Take Me There®: Greece showcased the vibrant culture of contemporary Greece, where modern life flourishes against the backdrop of the ancient Greek world.

From classic Greece, we next embarked on Mission Jurassic—the international partnership and scientific investigation that is bringing massive long-neck specimens to The Children's Museum. The museum’s Extraordinary Scientist-in-Residence Professor Phil Manning and Eli Lilly and Company Extraordinary Scientist-in-Residence Dr. Victoria Egerton have been leading the effort to unearth fossils from the museum’s square-mile dig site in Wyoming called The Jurassic Mile. This site is rich with thousands of treasures—including Jurassic dinosaur fossils, fossilized plants, trackways, and an ancient seabed—giving scientists the opportunity to develop a more complete picture of life in the Jurassic than has ever been done before. While museum scientists have been working at the site since 2017, an astonishing 638 fossils were unearthed in 2019 and became part of the museum’s permanent collection. The giant Jurassic dinosaur specimens will be showcased in a new Mission Jurassic Experience within Dinosphere® in 2022.

Extraordinary Media Exposure and Accolades
Our mission to create extraordinary, family-focused experiences made news with 3.5 billion media impressions. Year after year, The Children’s Museum of Indianapolis receives accolades from highly respected publications, and 2019 repeated that history with the following:

- One of the “World’s 50 Coolest Places” by TIME for Kids
- “Best Museum in Indiana” by USA Today
- “Best New Attractions to Visit” by USA Today/10 Best
- “Best New Attraction for Kids” by Lonely Planet
- “A Leading Voice for the Surrounding Neighborhoods” by The Kresge Foundation

From record-breaking 2019 attendance to ongoing discoveries of highly sought-after Jurassic period specimens, the museum continues to demonstrate its mission to deliver extraordinary experiences. To our board, donors, members, and visitors, thank you for your enthusiasm and support. The next decade promises to bring more exciting experiences for all to enjoy.

Record Support from The Children's Museum Guild
The Children’s Museum of Indianapolis couldn’t carry out its mission without the dedication of its volunteers. For their contribution, we salute The Children’s Museum Guild, which has been volunteering and fundraising in support of the museum since 1933. Every year, the Haunted House is an overwhelming success and 2019 was no exception. Hotel of Spells resulted in a record-breaking gift of $748,675 to the museum, bringing the Guild’s total Haunted House donations to the museum to more than $14.1 million.

Discovering Earth’s Past

Mission Jurassic is a bold new initiative for The Children’s Museum of Indianapolis that will result in a new Mission Jurassic Experience in 2022. The $27.5 million project has brought together more than 100 scientists from across the globe to explore and excavate a fossil-rich dinosaur dig site in northwestern Wyoming known as “The Jurassic Mile.” The mile-square site is a treasure trove of specimens, including Jurassic fossil bones, trackways, preserved plant life, and the remains of an ancient seabed from millions of years ago. This remarkable diversity of fossil evidence will allow scientists to develop a more complete picture of the Jurassic period, unearthing never-before-told stories.

The Jurassic Mile
The Jurassic Mile features three main quarries that offer a diverse assemblage of Morrison Formation articulated and semi-articulate dinosaurs on a multilevel, 640-acre site. The site also has fossilized remains of many other animals, marine life, fossil plants, and rarely associated dinosaur trackways (marks left on earth by a dinosaur, such as footprints) of the Late Jurassic period, 150 million years ago.

World-Class International Partners
Selected paleontological experts from top natural history museums and universities around the world have partnered with The Children’s Museum to form an international team with the extraordinary scientific knowledge and experience to tackle the many questions raised by the new discoveries from The Jurassic Mile. Leading the project are the museum’s Extraordinary Scientist-in-Residence Professor Phil Manning and Eli Lilly and Company Extraordinary Scientist-in-Residence Dr. Victoria Egerton, both of the University of Manchester (Manchester, UK).

Serving as the Mission Jurassic leader, The Children’s Museum partnered with The Natural History Museum (London, UK), the Naturalis Biodiversity Center (Leiden, Netherlands), the University of Manchester (Manchester, UK), and Research Casting International (Trenton, Ontario, Canada). The broader team also included Environmental Systems Research Inc. (Redlands, California) and Stanford Linear Accelerator (SLAC) Laboratory (Menlo Park, California).

2019 Progress Report

During the field season (June to August 2019), 638 specimens, weighing more than 15 tons, were excavated from The Jurassic Mile and became part of the museum’s collection. Included were the bones of a Diplodocid that may measure as much as 90 feet in length, and a likely Apatosaurus of up to 80 feet. Also discovered were thousands of Devil’s Toenails (Jurassic period oysters), as well as dolphin-like creatures called ichthyosaurs, and dinosaur trackways.

New Mission Jurassic Paleo Lab

As the new discoveries were unearthed, the museum needed a larger space to prepare and study the new specimens. The museum tripled its lab capacity with the creation of the new R.B. Annis Mission Jurassic Paleo Lab, which opened Sept. 10, 2019, alongside the Polly H. Hix Paleo Prep Lab (developed for work on Dinoshpere’s original Cretaceous period specimens). In 2019, 242 fossils were prepped in the combined labs. Thanks to a 20-year-lease procured by The Children’s Museum, museum paleontologists and partner scientists will be able to return to The Jurassic Mile site in Wyoming over the years to excavate more extraordinary specimens.

Made possible through lead gift support from Lilly Endowment Inc. and Eli Lilly and Company Foundation, with major support provided by The R.B. Annis Educational Foundation and Susie and Jack Sogard.
Creating Exceptional Family-Learning Experiences

From ancient Greece to Adventure Bay and galaxies unknown, families were transported to the past, to imaginary worlds, and to the future through an array of immersive exhibits. Family favorites like the Riley Children’s Health Sports Legends Experience, Jolly Days, Haunted House, and Hot Wheels™ rounded out the museum’s 2019 offerings.

Treasures of Ancient Greece exceeded attendance expectations, welcoming 71,930 visitors. The once-in-a-lifetime, immersive, family-friendly exhibition featured more than 150 ancient artworks and artifacts, many of which had never been displayed outside of Greece. From the Olympic Games to theater arts, architecture, and the foundations of medicine, philosophy, and democracy, visitors discovered how the ideas of the ancient Greeks form the basis of much of modern civilization. Children and grown-ups learned about ancient ruins, temples, and open-air theaters along with philosophers and mythological gods. A highlight was a replica of the Antikythera Mechanism, known as the world’s first computer, one of hundreds of ancient artifacts recovered in 1901 from the remains of an ancient shipwreck located off the coast of the Greek island of Antikythera.

Presented by OneAmerica. Supported by Ice Miller LLP.

Take Me There: Greece was equally successful, captivating 399,400 visitors. The third exhibit in the museum’s Take Me There series, Take Me There: Greece allows families to explore modern-day Greece without ever leaving the U.S. Visitors strolled through replica Greek homes and shopping markets, and learned about traditional Greek foods, dance, and music. Families also got a firsthand look at the conservation work done by ARCHELON, a Greek organization that works to protect loggerhead sea turtles.

Presented by Ice Miller LLP. Take Me There: Greece is made possible by lead gifts from Lilly Endowment Inc. Eli Lilly and Company Foundation, Inc. The Lilly Family: Mrs. Yvonne Shaheen Sarah and John Lechleiter the U.S. Institute for Museum and Library Services Jane and Steve Marmo Susan and Jim Naus and Polly Hix. Noyes, Jr., Memorial Foundation* Dorothea and Philip Genetos Jamie Merisotis and Colleen O’Brien Mike and Kristin Sherman and The Pheffer Family.

PAW Patrol: Adventure Play, produced in partnership with Nickelodeon, opened Feb. 23, 2019, and proved to be a big hit with children and grown-ups alike. The hero pups of Adventure Bay welcomed an impressive 331,000 visitors. Children enjoyed overcoming obstacles and helping others with the beloved Marshall, Chase, Skye, Everest, Rocky, Zuma, and Tracker at various stops throughout the exhibit. The Children’s Museum of Indianapolis was the first museum to design, host, and tour an exhibit about the popular pups. PAW Patrol: Adventure Play is traveling to other children’s museums and venues across North America for the next five years.

The Future Is Here: How Sci-Fi Becomes Reality entertained families with an out-of-this-world sound and light show in the Schaefer Planetarium and Space Object Theater. Produced by the museum and voiced by George Takei (the original Hikaru Sulu from Star Trek), the 13-minute presentation explores how popular science fiction such as Star Trek has predicted and helped to shape scientific and technological advancements that are now a part of daily lives, including mobile phones and computers. A key object showcased in the theater was the Kelvin Pod movie prop from the 2016 film Star Trek Beyond. Attendance was 160,000.

Star Trek: Exploring New Worlds brought to life the iconic Star Trek series. The immersive exhibit looked at the impact of Star Trek on culture, society, art, technology, fashion, and more through more than 100 rare artifacts, set pieces, and props from the TV series, its spinoffs, and films. An impressive 273,000 visitors enjoyed the captivating sci-fi experience.

Haunted House: Hotel of Spells was a family favorite. In 2019, the Guild’s 56th Annual Haunted House brought delightful doom to 59,580 visitors! Guests were greeted in the Wretched Reception area, and explored a hotel that featured hexed hallways, crooked corridors, music by The Grim Reapers band, and a Grand BallDOOM hosting a nightmarish wedding. IPL Lights-on Hours were popular with younger visitors while the CENTURY 21 SCHEETZ Frightening Hours kept the lights off for families who dared to be scared!

Hot Wheels™: Race to Win™ enjoyed its fifth and final year at The Children’s Museum in 2019. The ever-popular summertime exhibit encouraged children and families to participate in activities together and discover how race car designs, development, and cutting-edge technology result in the fastest vehicles in the world. More than 137,600 visitors enjoyed the various immersive activities that explored the elements of STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics).

2019 EXHIBITS IN DEVELOPMENT

Barbie™ You Can Be Anything™: The Experience invites visitors to explore different careers and learn more about some of the more than 200 careers Barbie has had. From career dolls to real-world role models, Barbie has been inspiring girls since 1959. Created in partnership with Mattel, the exhibit encourages imaginative play that teaches us that no matter our gender, ethnicity, or background, we can all make the world a better place by doing work that excites us, challenges us, and brings fulfillment. Families also learn from powerful female role models through history who have inspired Barbie and broken career barriers for women.

Malala’s World is an exciting new initiative to add the story of Malala to the museum’s influential permanent exhibit The Power of Children. The exhibit will explain the challenges Malala Yousafzai faced as she attempted to get an education, and the positive impact she has had around the world. The museum will re-create her home in Pakistan’s Swat Valley and present information about her life, showing how she used the family computer to advocate for girls’ right to education. Developed in tandem with Malala’s World, The Power of Children: A Year of Action is a 2020 initiative that encourages families to take small steps on their own to make the world a better place.

Mini Masterpieces, the museum’s beloved collection of miniature period rooms, is being re-imagined to captivate new visitors.

Presented by Subway. Supported by Franklin Pest Solutions and KinderCare Learning Centers.

Support of Malala Yousafzai’s story is provided by National Endowment for the Humanities, Allen Whitehill Clowes Charitable Foundation, Inc., U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services, and Kevin and Susan Woodhouse.
generations of children and families. Throughout 2019, staff were hard at work creating new ways to present and interpret these tiny treasures, as well as ways to introduce interactive elements, such as a virtual “make your own mini masterpiece” experience. Slated to open in 2020, the re-imagined exhibit will move to an expanded area on Level 4 and showcase the Chateau Beaumont house, a gift of Wanda Fortune.

Mini Masterpieces is made possible by the generous support of the Brooks and Joan Fortune Family Foundation.

COLLECTIONS

The Children’s Museum of Indianapolis is distinguished by its extraordinary collection, and in 2019, more than 18,000 artifacts and specimens were used in exhibitions, programs, publications, research, special tours, digital projects, and loans to other institutions.

- Acquired—A total of 360 artifacts and specimens were acquired by the museum, including the Terry Moore Mr. Potato Head Collection and 133 artifacts for the new Take Me There: Greece experience.
- Borrowed—The museum borrowed 162 ancient archaeological artifacts and works of art for Treasures of Ancient Greece from the Hellenic Ministry of Culture and Sports, along with Percy Jackson props from Twentieth Century Fox archives, and Hercules screen-worn costumes from Paramount Pictures. Paramount Pictures also loaned its screen-used Escape Pod from the 2016 film Star Trek Beyond for display in the Schaefer Planetarium and Space Object Theater.

This marble statue of Artemis Laphria, 200–100 BCE, was one of 162 artifacts borrowed from the Hellenic Ministry of Culture and Sports for Treasures of Ancient Greece.
Experiencing Innovative Interactions

From live interpretation and educational programs to special appearances, The Children’s Museum of Indianapolis is a destination for learning through its many engaging interactions. In 2019, interpreters enriched exhibits, special appearances and theater performances dazzled visitors, and family and school programs made the museum a valuable resource for interactive education.

Museum interpreters bring people, places, and concepts alive for visitors! In 2019, interpreters put on 118 presentations per day, engaging 48% of all visitors in ideas about history, science, the arts, humanities, and athletics. Families enjoyed creating their own Pup Packs for escapades in PAW Patrol: Adventure Play, exploring science and science fiction in Starfleet: Into the Future, and discovering aspects of modern and ancient Greece, including an Up Close and Personal program with the Antikythera Mechanism.

Extraordinary atrium shows included Owed to a Grecian Urn, which welcomed children and families to join a Greek archaeologist to discover the mysteries of a recently uncovered enormous vase. Together they explored the meaning behind the decoration on the vase and watched as one lucky volunteer joined the performance to “play” the ancient Greek instrument the lyre.

The Visiting Artist Program continued to captivate families in 2019. Each year, the museum recruits exceptional artists with Indiana ties to publicly present and teach about their work. The artists interact with and inspire children and families through demonstrations and workshops. From January to March 2019, C.W. Mundy continued his work as the museum’s inaugural Visiting Artist, presenting to 331 visitors. Rita Spalding joined the program in August 2019, offering a yearlong series of free weekend workshops and demonstrations in spaces throughout the museum, including Playscape®, the National Art Museum of Sport, and Corteva Agriscience ScienceWorks. Her workshops were attended by 272 visitors and 496 visitors observed her demonstrations.

A project of The Lechleiter Indiana Visiting Artist Fund with support provided by The White Oak Foundation, John and Sarah Lechleiter.

Special appearances from the Indianapolis Colts, Indiana Pacers, Indiana Fever, and Indianapolis Indians were highlights in 2019. The Pacers Power Pack, their acrobatic dunk team, demonstrated some amazing trick shots! Then, on Nov. 9, the museum celebrated 100 seasons of NFL football with Family Fantennial Day in partnership with the Indianapolis Colts. The event offered free admission and featured appearances
Children and families gathered in the museum’s Sunburst Atrium for imaginative and engaging shows.

Visiting Artist Rita Spalding offered workshops for visitors of all ages.

Children and families were thrilled by the high-flying athleticism of the Pacers Power Pack during their visit to the Riley Children’s Health Sports Legends Experience®.
by legendary Indianapolis Colts players, including Dwight Freeney, Marlin Jackson, Gary Brackett, Reggie Wayne, Ryan Diem, and Joe Rietz.

Another noteworthy appearance was that of actor George Takei, the original Sulu from Star Trek and the voice of the museum’s Schaefer Planetarium and Space Object Theater show The Future Is Here—How Sci-Fi Becomes Reality. On Sunday, Aug. 25, Mr. Takei spoke to museum visitors about his book They Called Us Enemy, which revisits his Japanese American family’s internment in an American concentration camp during World War II.

Public events are themed event days featuring special performances, appearances, activities, and demonstrations. In 2019, visitors enjoyed the museum’s Countdown to Noon, Black History Month Celebration, Engineers Day, Lemonade Day, International Archaeology Day, May the 4th Be with You featuring the 501st Legion, and Santa's Big Arrival, with Santa arriving in a two-seater IndyCar driven by racing legend Tony Kanaan.

Actor George Takei visited the museum to discuss his new book, They Called Us Enemy.

Santa's Big Arrival was presented by Riley Children's at Indiana University Health and supported by Splenda. Countdown to Noon was supported by Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance and Donatos Pizza.

Family, homeschool, and outreach programs had 10,667 attendees in 2019. Family learning experiences included the popular Bunnysaurus Rex egg hunt in the Riley Children's Health Sports Legends Experience®, Fairy Tale Puzzle Room, a North Pole PJ Party, and the Wyoming Dinosaur Adventure, which took 12 participants on a family trip to Wyoming. There were 972 participants in homeschool programs and more than 9,300 in 28 school outreach programs.

The museum's family and homeschool programs took children and their grown-ups on adventures in ancient Greece, computer coding, outer space, and more.
School visits and school memberships provided immersive learning opportunities outside the classroom. In 2019, there were 85,464 field trip attendees, including 32,491 attendees who took part in the museum’s programs for school groups. The museum also boasted an impressive 90 member schools, the highest membership since 2016.

Lilly Theater captured the imaginations of children and adults alike. Shows in 2019 included James and the Giant Peach, Tales of Olympus, Nightfall with Edgar Allan Poe, and The Magic Snowman. Total attendance in 2019 was 49,915, including 11,492 students, teachers, and chaperones who saw a theater production as part of a school field trip.

The Children’s Museum Preschool offered young students a unique experience of inquiry-based learning and daily access to exhibits and experiences before the museum opened to the public. In 2019, the Preschool had 94 students enrolled in its spring session and 77 students in the fall. The program successfully prepared its students moving on to Kindergarten with the school-ready skills expected of a 5-year-old. Also, four students received scholarships, and two families received On My Way Pre-K vouchers.

The production of The Magic Snowman was supported by the Christel DeHaan Family Foundation in honor of the children and families of Christel House.
Connecting with Our Community

From programs that support surrounding neighborhoods to making the museum accessible to people at all income levels, The Children’s Museum continues to make a positive impact on children and families throughout Indiana. It’s about serving the community by inspiring creativity and a hope for the future. In 2019, the museum expanded the reach of its transformational learning opportunities.

Investment in our community is more than a promise. It’s a commitment to supporting teachers and students of all income levels and offering extraordinary programs that support family learning goals from cradle to career. In 2019, the museum invested $460,380 in community-focused initiatives, which included support for Access Pass and the Old National Bank Mid-North Promise Program.

Free and reduced admission programs encompass a variety of free or low-cost educational opportunities for families with young children through teen years.

- Access Pass is a program that allows qualifying low-income Indiana families to visit the museum or Riley Children’s Health Sports Legends Experience® for $2 per person per visit, or $3 per person to visit both. In 2019, there were 7,090 Access Pass households statewide that accounted for 44,118 museum visits.

- First Thursdays is a reduced admission program in which visitors pay $5 per family member to visit the museum or the Riley Sports Legends Experience®, or $7 to visit both. It occurs on the first Thursday evening of the month from 4 to 8 p.m. First Thursday events were attended by 21,040 in 2019.

- The Children’s Museum Neighborhood Club offers free museum memberships to all families living in the six Mid-North neighborhoods surrounding the museum. In addition, all neighborhood residents are invited to attend free Neighborhood Nights on select evenings during the year, including the annual Neighborhood Holiday party. In 2019, there were 924 Neighborhood Club households and 12,417 visits through the program. Neighborhood Nights brought in a total of 837 attendees, with 598 attending the Holiday Party.

- The Foster Family Program provides free museum memberships to Indiana foster families. In 2019, the program served 1,085 households and accounted for 11,206 visits.

- Free admission days included Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day, Presidents Day, Fiesta de la Familia, Fantennial Family Day with the Indianapolis Colts (a one-time event celebrating the 100th anniversary of the NFL with special appearances by Colts legends), and Christmas Eve Day. Total attendance was 50,616.

Martin Luther King Jr. Day was supported by FedEx and Capital Group Companies. Fiesta de la Familia was presented by Metro by T-Mobile and supported by IUPUI.

The Old National Bank Mid-North Promise Program (MNPP) is a signature Children’s Museum initiative designed to help Mid-North families achieve their educational and career goals. It provides preschool guidance, community resource counseling, summer/after-school programs, and college/workforce training scholarships. In 2019, the program served 80 families and awarded 17 scholarships, reaching a total of 44 total scholarships awarded since the program’s inception in 2015. This program is making a difference in people’s lives. One mother of three children exemplifies the power of the program. With the help of the MNPP, she set career goals, opened her own sole-proprietorship, and is now pursuing a bachelor’s degree at IUPUI. Her children have also benefited from the program. She says, “MNPP has changed the direction of our lives for the better and forever, and our family is just one example.”

In June 2019, the Old National Bank Mid-North Promise Program held a celebration for high-school graduates going on to college (pictured) and new scholarship winners.

StarPoint is an affordable summer camp experience for Mid-North neighborhood youths ages 6 to 12. In 2019, there were 82 unique campers who participated over four one-week sessions. Themes included Baseball, Dinosaurs, Greece, and Space (celebrating the 50th anniversary of Apollo 11). In the program’s 34th year, StarPoint continued to receive positive feedback with parents describing the program as “amazing,” offering “fun learning opportunities,” and “an incredible benefit to living in the neighborhood.”

StarPoint was supported by Lilly Endowment Inc.; Capital Group Companies; Allen Whitehill Clowes Charitable Foundation, Inc.; Ayres Foundation, Inc.; Downtown Optimist Foundation; and Green BEAN Delivery.

After-School Explorers celebrated its sixth year at capacity with 24 students enrolled. The program serves children in Grades 3–5 who live in or attend schools in the Mid-North neighborhoods. In 2019, programming included students recording podcasts with local heroes and sports legends.

Support provided by the Lumina Foundation and the Nina Mason Pulliam Charitable Trust.
Giving Time and Talent

From planning the museum’s popular seasonal events to filling in the gaps needed to service ongoing programs for families, volunteers play a crucial role in the success of the museum. Without their dedication, the museum wouldn’t be where it is today. In 2019, as we do every year, we celebrated their extraordinary family-learning contributions. In particular, the museum honored three volunteers who achieved 15 years of service and one who celebrated 20 years! And Debbie Young, director of volunteer services, interns, and the Power of Children Awards, retired after 18 years of service to the museum.

Our volunteers—including adult and family volunteers, Board members, Guild members, and interns—went above and beyond in 2019, donating 67,176 hours valued at nearly $1.6 million. These included 543 individuals representing 15 companies or groups from throughout the community, including Capital Group Companies and FedEx; university clubs, teams, and groups from IUPUI, Ball State University, and Butler University; and community groups like Gigi’s Playhouse and Noble of Indiana.

The Children’s Museum Guild contributed 36,812 volunteer hours to support the museum in 2019. Projects included the ever-popular Black Hat Bash, Indy’s biggest family-friendly Halloween party; Sports Spooktacular, held in the Riley Children’s Health Sports Legends Experience®; Feast with the Witches, featuring a “BOO-fet” and Halloween themed activities; and Track and Treat—a brand-new event that welcomed 438 attendees to Riley Children’s Health Sports Legends Experience® for trick-or-treat around the track, an all-ages scavenger hunt, and more! Guild members also support the museum by assisting with community outreach initiatives and the Power of Children Awards.

Black Hat Bash was presented by AAA Insurance. Track and Treat was presented by <Hackd/> and Scannell Properties. Sports Spooktacular was presented by Ninjazone and Birge & Held. Feast with the Witches was presented by Bingham Greenbaum Doll LLP.

The museum’s Intern Program pairs undergraduate and graduate students with staff mentors from more than 20 departments across the museum, including Education, Fund Development, Collections, Information and Interactive Technologies, Marketing, and more. In 2019, the museum worked with 46 interns, 19 of whom were in...
The museum also awarded five fellowships to graduate students and very high-achieving seniors. Since the inception of the program, the museum has hosted 1,518 interns from across the country and 11 nations around the world.

The Power of Children Awards recognize 6th through 11th Grade youths who are improving their communities and the world through their selfless commitment to serving others and finding solutions to the challenges of our time. Established in 2005, the awards are inspired by The Power of Children: Making a Difference® exhibit, featuring the stories of Anne Frank, Ruby Bridges, and Ryan White. Over the course of 15 years, 78 winners from 19 states have made an enormous impact, raising $12 million for their projects benefitting more than 2 million people worldwide.

On Nov. 15, the museum honored six outstanding young people from across the country at the Power of Children Awards, followed by The Power of Children Symposium on Nov. 16. The 2019 winners were: Sophie Draluck, Project: Cycle Forward; Emma Meyer, Project: Emma’s Bundles of Books and Joy; Ptolemy Henson, Project: Every Leaf Has a STEM; Jahkil Jackson, Project: Project I Am; Raghav Ganesh, Project: Serene: A Biomedical System and Mobile Application for Autism; and Summer Steinmiller, Project: Teens vs. Trafficking.

The Power of Children Awards were established by The Deborah Joy Simon Charitable Trust. Full list of sponsors on page 44. The Power of Children Symposium was presented by the Lilly Family School of Philanthropy at Indiana University–Purdue University Indianapolis.
Making Vital Contributions

From corporate and foundation grants in support of new initiatives, to events and programs supporting The Children’s Museum Fund, significant support was garnered to help the museum continue to provide extraordinary experiences for all children and families. A new STEM initiative award by The Eli Lilly and Company Foundation was a highlight in 2019.

The Lilly Girls and Young Women in STEM Initiative was created to inspire girls and young women from diverse backgrounds to pursue careers in science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM). The largest grant ever awarded by the Eli Lilly and Company Foundation to the museum, it will enable the museum to develop a suite of programs promoting long-term, in-depth engagement with women in STEM professions, in particular the many extraordinary women scientists that are part of the Mission Jurassic initiative. Through the grant, the museum will also offer free school memberships to all Indianapolis Public Schools, allowing the state’s largest school system to receive unlimited field trips to the museum.

The museum’s Extraordinary Giving Society welcomed two new members in 2019: the Mothershead and Kruse Families and the Allen Whitehill Clowes Charitable Foundation, Inc. The society honors those special individuals and organizations that have committed $1 million or more to The Children’s Museum. The museum is appreciative of the ongoing contributions of these long-term supporters.

The Sacred Spaces and Places planning grant was received from Lilly Endowment Inc. The planning grant has allowed the museum to convene an advisory panel and develop partnerships and concepts for a proposed new family learning experience about world religion. The experience will explore questions such as: what makes a location sacred, how do sacred spaces and places teach and inspire, and why are they important?

The Children’s Museum Fund Milestone Program is another unique way the museum recognizes its generous donors. Milestone donors have consistently supported the museum with gifts of any amount, large or small, over five or more years, with some supporting the museum for as long as 40 years. This year, the museum spotlighted those donors who have given for 25 years or more, contributing to the museum’s success and creating a legacy for Indianapolis and central Indiana. Also new in 2019, the museum created a special digital recognition area in the Sunburst Atrium for all Milestone donors.

The Golden Age of Greece Gala was an epic evening celebrating the opening of Treasures of Ancient Greece and Take Me There®: Greece. It showcased art and artifacts of ancient Greece reflecting an age of heroes, myths, and legends, as well as the vibrant culture of modern Greece, where the past is always present. More than 350 museum friends, donors, civic leaders, and corporate citizens came together to enjoy authentic Greek food, spirits, and entertainment. The event benefitted The Children’s Museum Fund, which ensures that all children and families, regardless of income, can access the museum and its extraordinary exhibits.

The Golden Age of Greece Gala brought together members, donors, and civic leaders to celebrate the opening of Treasures of Ancient Greece and Take Me There: Greece.

Museum by Moonlight is an annual extravaganza for adults age 21+. The 2019 event was another sold-out success. Funds raised support the museum’s mission to make the museum accessible to all.

After Dark Events gave adults 21+ a chance to experience Children Museum’s exhibits in a whole new way—without the kids! In 2019, the After Dark evenings included Athens After Dark, focused on Take Me There®: Greece; All-Star After Dark, highlighting the Riley Children’s Health Sports Legends Experience®; and Weird Science After Dark.

The 1925 Society is the museum’s young professionals group that is engaging a new generation of young leaders and fostering professional growth through extraordinary museum experiences. The group met for several fun, exclusive events, including a behind-the-scenes tour of the museum’s archives, and members also helped to plan and support the Museum by Moonlight and After Dark events.
The Children's Museum of Indianapolis is grateful to have the support of donors who have graciously enriched our visitor experiences and created opportunities for future generations.

RUTH ALLISON LILLY SOCIETY
Ruth Allison Lilly, one of the museum's earliest benefactors, gave generously to The Children's Museum during her lifetime and through her bequests. In honor the museum founded the Ruth Allison Lilly Society in 1989. Membership is open to museum friends who have made estate or deferred-gift commitments to the museum. Contact Judy Stewart at 317-334-3839 for information on how to include the museum in your estate plans.

Thank You for Your Continued Support

2019 was an extraordinary year for The Children’s Museum—a year of meaningful impact and transformative family learning, as evidenced by our record attendance of 1.3 million. Through your support, YOU made it all possible, and we thank you.

In 2020, we need you more than ever. The months-long closure of the museum due to the pandemic, coupled with a reopening of the museum at greatly reduced capacity for the health and safety of all, has meant a significant loss of revenue—up to $10 million or more in 2020.

We know this is a difficult time for everyone, but when the time is right, please consider making a gift to The Rex Response Fund, which addresses our most urgent needs. We sincerely appreciate gifts of any amount. For more information, or to donate, visit childrensmuseum.org/donate.
